

Submission Format

Abstract

- The abstract should include the objectives, scope, major issues addressed and a concluding statement of the study; be between 200 and 250 words; and include key words. References and footnotes should not be included.

Full paper

- The length of the paper should be between 3500 to 7000 words (inclusive of footnotes, references and appendices if any); Abstracts and papers must be submitted as a MS Word file.

Style Guide

- English - Calibri; Sinhala - FM Abaya and Tamil –Bhamini
11 point; and 1.5 line spacing.

Submission

- Abstracts and full papers must be sent by email to natcon2016.cenwor@gmail.com
- The file name should be the Name_of Author(s), Institutional Affiliation
- The subject of the email should be: Fifteenth National Convention on Women's Studies

Please note that authors who do not adhere to these guidelines will be requested to revise the papers prior to being accepted for presentation.