

Review of the National Labour Migration Policy for Sri Lanka 2008

DURATION

January 2017 – July 2017

DONOR

International Labour Organization (ILO)

LOCALE

Colombo, Kandy, Kurunegala, Batticaloa, Jaffna,
Sri Lanka

OBSERVATIONS/RESULTS

- The seven-month study conducted extensive consultations with a range of stakeholders that included male and female perspective, on-site, and returned migrant workers and their families, key state officials at divisional, district, and national levels in high migration districts, the two-state agencies tasked with managing the migration process, officials of the recruitment industry, and civil society and community members.